Welcome to the mountain retreat you've always dreamed of! Lush meadows invite you to plant your garden or keep a horse, while serene woodlands provide peaceful trails and a natural buffer from the outside world. Sip your morning coffee on the expansive wraparound porch as deer and wild turkeys wander by—this is your sanctuary for true relaxation.

Mountain Tea perfectly blends rustic charm with modern comforts. The updated kitchen features granite countertops, maple cabinetry, and stainless-steel appliances. Throughout the home, you'll find warm oak and pine floors, solid wood doors, vaulted ceilings with tongue-and-groove wood cladding, and rich wood trim that adds timeless character. Light floods the spacious living room through an abundance of windows, creating a bright and welcoming space. The primary suite is so cozy and inviting, you may never want to leave. Your dogs will love the freedom of the fully fenced backyard, and you'll appreciate the flexibility of bonus rooms and open outdoor spaces—ideal for a variety of hobbies. Located less than 10 minutes from Weaverville and just 20 minutes from Asheville, this home offers the best of both worlds: the tranquility of mountain living with the convenience of nearby towns.

Come take a look, you just might fall in love!
